4-H 101 OWL Assessment

1. A New York 4-H Study found that 4-H members develop skills in: (Mark the best answer)
   - Self Esteem
   - Public Speaking
   - Communication
   - Planning
   - Leadership
   - All of the above

2. Experiences in which young people and adults have close connections over a long period of time are defined as
   - High Context Youth Development
   - Low Context Youth Development

3. The best learning environment is where high context delivery methods overlap high content experiences. In 4-H delivery methods, this is a ________________.

4. Which of the following make up the Essential Elements of 4-H? (Mark all that apply)
   - Food
   - Belonging
   - Generosity
   - Independence
   - Water
   - Mastery

5. The 4-H Emblem (the four-leaf clover) is federally protected. True or False

6. The 4-H Motto was adopted about the same time as the 4-H pledge. The motto is ________________________________________________________________.

7. The 4-H Colors are:
   - Blue
   - Yellow
   - Green
   - Red
   - White

8. The congressionally approved home in which 4-H resides is: (Mark the correct answer)
   - DOE
   - DOD
   - USDA
   - FDA

9. The state partner in the Cooperative Extension partnership is the land grant universities in each state. True or False

10. Cooperative Extension in Florida is a partnership between which of these entities:
    - University of Florida
    - Florida State University
    - Florida Counties
11. In the US, 4-H began in 1902.  True or False
12. An Example of a 4-H delivery method that focuses on lower content with high context is:
  o 4-H Afterschool
  o 4-H Residential Camp
  o 4-H School Enrichment
  o 4-H Day Camp
13. Characteristics of youth whose needs are met in negative ways or go unmet are generally undesirable and harmful to youth and their communities. True or False
14. Characteristics of youth whose needs are met in positive ways such as participation in 4-H develop characteristics that are valued by society. True or False